

In order to allow our educators to set up classrooms and prepare for in-person learning, the following groups of students will have no school on ONE of the days below. As a result, the early release day that was scheduled for Tuesday, March 30, will be a full school day for ALL students.

- Thursday, April 1st
  - No school for Chelsea Opportunity Academy and students in special education substantially separate programs (Social Communication, Functional Academics, and Learning Centers) Pre-K-12
  - School will remain in session for all other students

- Monday, April 5th
  - No school for students in grades Pre-K-4
  - School will remain in session for all other students, including students who have no school on April 1st

- Wednesday, April 14th
  - No school for students in grades 5-8
  - No school for Chelsea High School foundational ELs (WIDA Levels 1 and 2)
  - School will remain in session for all other students, including students who have no school on April 1st

*Online Learning Centers will remain open on the above dates.